

Kestrel Heights Black History Month
Essay Contest 2012
"African American Women in History"

- Any Kestrel Heights Student is eligible to participate in the Essay Contest
- Essays are to address the following topic: describe an African American woman who has made a significant achievement in American Society, that has advanced the quality of life for Americans. Address how and why this person has inspired you and how you can use their example to improve your school, community, or society.
- Each student may enter only one essay
- Essays submitted must include your name, grade and the title of your essay.
- Essays should be typed neatly.
- Essays should be at least 500 words.
- Essays will be judged not only on content, but grammatical accuracy. In addition, attention to details such as punctuation and spelling is important.
- There will be a winner from the Middle School and one from the High School
- Winning essays will be read during the Black History Month Program.
- Essays can be submitted online to vines@kestrelheights.org or given to Mrs. Vines.
- Deadline Feb 15, 2012, at 3pm.

If you have any questions, please stop by Mrs. Vines' Office or email her at vines@kestrelheights.org

